Monthly Newsletter for campers and staff
(and parents, too)

JMG certificates and Championship medals soon to be awarded to deserving recipients.

Wonderful Memories of Winona's Centennial Season!!

Successful 2007 JMG's light the campfire: 'TJ' Ganser, Leo Tanenbaum-Diaz, Javier Halffler Mijares and Jake Kopell.

That's why it's called AWARDS NIGHT!!

And a special AWARDS NIGHT, indeed . . . held outdoors to accommodate the overflow crowd.

It was a beautiful evening and a memorable ceremony. [Special thanks to our great photographers - Clay Miles (Wi 1964-74, 1976-82, 2004-07) and Laura Connelly (Wi 1997-2007) for these and future pictures.]

NEWS FROM HERE AND ABOUT

Gus Potter (Senior Winona Best Camper) sent this postcard from Argentina: "Greetings from Patagonia! The snowboarding down here is amazing. I think the mountain air cured me of my ailments. Thanks for an amazing summer. See you next year."

Still here on the shores: Sebastian Artega, Steve Downing, Fraser Jones, Chris Garelis, Sergey Stepanov, Kerrie Vaneris and Abbie Wescott. A sushi dinner at Benkays with Uncle Al was part of the fringe benefits for postseason stalwarts.

A special stage was constructed for the BATs to appear.

Now, lets see -
were there two BATs???

NO - - - there were Four Centennial BATs!!

Ryan Frame (Wi 1992-2000, 2002-05, 07),
Brem Stoner (Wi 1992-2001, 2003-07),
Uncle Phil Clough (Wi 1963-2007) and Chris Abbott (Wi 1991-94, 2000-02, 07),

join in one last BAT scream. . .

These Centennial BATs totaled 82 years of Moose Pond experience!!

Next Month: Reunion schedule for November, December and January, plus new additions to Winona's '101 Tons of Fun' ADVANCE GUARD contingent.

Until then,

Uncle Al
