AIRLINE ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES INFORMATION ON REVERSE SIDE

AIRLINE travel - important notes:

- Check with your airline and arrange/pay for roundtrip UNACCOMPANIED MINOR status for your child, if applicable. Each airline has a different age limit when a child MUST fly as an unaccompanied minor. Use Laura Ordway's or Steve Sudduth's name as the person meeting your camper at the airport.
- Many airlines charge extra fees for checked luggage. Pre-pay this fee when booking your child's return trip. If you are unable to do so, the chaperones will pay this fee and camp will bill you accordingly.
- All times listed as U.S. Eastern Daylight time.
- Refer to PREFERRED TIMES shown on transportation form (enclosed) prior to ordering your tickets.
- If you are unable to schedule your child's flights within the PREFERRED TIMES shown on the transportation form, please contact the camp office directly.
- Campers traveling by plane should wear a camp shirt for easy identification.
- The charge for a chaperoned travel includes camp counselors (who meet your child at the gate whenever possible, or at the exit to security), bus to and from camp, tips, cartage of baggage, and meals (also over-night accommodations June 26th or July 20th for Western USA and International arrivals).
- Chaperons are available to assist in Portland, ME (PWM) and Boston, MA (BOS). Other arrival cities will require ticketing a through flight to Portland or Boston. If clearing customs and/or making connections, the camper should either travel with older, experienced campers or be ticketed as an Unaccompanied Minor.
- Campers departing camp on a flight need to have on file a copy of their itinerary and a photocopy of their student I.D. and/or passport.

Choose the date(s) below that applies to your child and read the accompanying flight/travel directions for each date:
