

THE JUNIOR TIMES

August 15, 2019

The final days in Junior Winona were filled with Red-Gray week memories, Tribal Treasure Hunts, Unit Night and tent parties for every tent. Another amazing summer on the shores of Moose Pond has come to a close and the emotions shown at Awards Night represented how the 112th season was so special. Junior campers departed with smiles, joyful tears and excitement for the year to come. The summer was a time to make more fun memories, which we're sure your son has already shared with you and their friends. Being "camp sick" can be hard for some but is evidence of a great summer and a desire to return for our 113th season.

Here's a quick recap of the past week in Junior Winona and of the events we held at the end of the summer:

The Tribal Treasure Hunt was held on Thursday. The boys of each tribe ran all over camp, searching for clues, high and low, even paddled to the Intermediate shark mat to obtain one of thirteen clues. In the end, receiving their lodge first, the Senecas came out victorious. All tribes were given a treat for the hard fought race.

Red-Gray week took up the majority of the competition in the final days as the two teams challenged each other all summer long, leading up to the ever important activity events. Among others, Reds won gimp, watersports, campcraft, kayaking and basketball while the Grays matched them in baseball, swimming, tennis, canoeing and arts & crafts. After a thrilling week of events, it all came down to the Great Relay on Friday. Every Junior camper was given an activity assignment to display their individual talents, with runners in-between to keep the race ever so close. Along with the regular activities which campers enjoy every day, there were a few special activities such as war canoe races, the mini marathon and a wet day fire at campcraft for the finale. Congratulations to all the boys!

Tent 10, John Denny, Duncan May, and Hugh Williams won best tent wrapping-up the tent work season. The "men of 10" worked hard all season and it finally paid off.

Thank you for sharing your boys with us. What a fantastic group to have this summer! Have a Staunch & True year. We hope to see you in 2020 for our 113th season on the shores of Moose Pond.
