Spring 2021

Newsletter for campers and staff
(and parents, too!)

Work-Week Crew are here, getting camp ready as we gear up for our 114th Season.

Welcoming white chairs are ready on the shores of Moose Pond.

Doug Sr., with Doug Jr. and Doug Jr., getting lots and lots of pre-season projects completed at Winona.

Many projects were also completed over the winter, including the deck and remodeling of Winona's "historic" Airstream trailer.

Uncle Wally Wilson visited, all the way from Oregon. He's already prepping equipment for Junior Maine Guides 2021.

Beautiful springtime view of Mount Washington (NH) from the Winona Junior Wiggy.

We are pleased to announce Winona's new SQUADRONS:

Dirigo RAVENS
Mountain HAWKS
Ocean OSPREYS
Swift FALCONS

While the Squadrons will mainly be known at camp as the "Ravens", "Hawks", "Ospreys", "Falcons" - all common birds of Maine - we feel the descriptors/prefixes are important not only because of the Maine context, but also due to connection: each descriptor begins with the letter of a former tribe, thus automatically connecting campers and alumni from their former tribe to their new squadron.

MORE NEWS FROM HERE AND ABOUT...

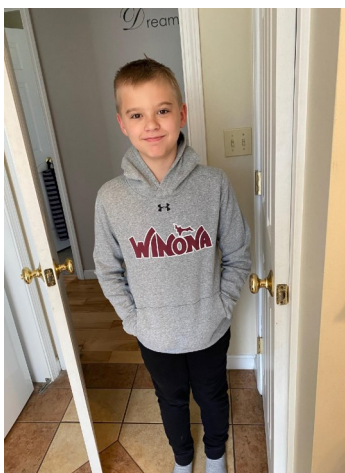

Senior camper John Proulx is honing campcraft skills during lockdown. Winona is glad to be offering Junior Maine Guide (JMG) training in summer 2021.

Holding the record for most family members on-site over the past several years, the Sonne/Voyzey/McGovern family enjoys their first brunch together as restrictions are lifted around the country. Many pictured will be at Winona and Wyonegonic this summer!

Wesley Letellier wears a Winona t-shirt on vaccination #1 day. Nice job! (Winona is encouraging as many campers as possible to be COVID-19 vaccinated this summer.)

New camper, Kamden Tarr, sporting his Winona sweatshirt. This is a great reminder to check out the AmeraSport website and place your orders soon.

Directors Corner—Uncle Zach Clayton

Winona is excited to announce, after a few years away from camp, Uncle Zach is returning for his 15th summer on the shores, and he is excited to become the Junior Unit Director. While Zach was never a Junior camper, he found a home in Junior as a staff member and never left. Zach's family has been on the shores for four generations and his siblings and cousins have spent many summers at camp, as campers and counselors at Winona and Wyonegonic. This summer Uncle Zach will be joined by his wife, Emma, and daughter, Piper, who are excited for their first summer in Junior Winona. Over the past nine years he has worked as a middle school teacher, coach, and advisor in Massachusetts before moving to Maine with his family last summer. Zach will be teaching at the Levey Day School beginning in the fall and he has spent the last year helping to run a school-daycare program to assist Portland Public School faculty families during the pandemic at the Breakwater School. When Zach thinks of his time at Winona, it is full of positive memories, he truly believes that children thrive when given the opportunity to explore outside. The more time he has spent in the classroom the more he has come to find that Winona is a great place for learning skills, that help kids to find success in school and everyday life as a student, and even as adults. Zach's favorite Winona traditions are Sunday morning cookouts, mountain trips, and Unit Night. The friendships that are forged at Winona last a lifetime and they start in Junior. Welcome back, Zach!
